

IDENTIFY ANOTHER SKELETON IN KANSAS

Missing Peddler Thought Certain to Be William F. Ringer; Brothers Will Attend Hearing.

IS ANOTHER KING VICTIM

Believed to Have Been Killed by Man Who Is Already Under Murder Charge at Eskridge.

TUCUMCARI, Kans., Aug. 27.—The unidentified jewelry peddler for whose death Rufus King is charged with murder may possibly be identified. William F. Ringer, attorney for a deceased person reported today by Attorney General Hopkins from O. H. Ringer of Tilden, Neb., and his brother, O. H. Ringer of Wimberly, Neb. They announced their intention of attending King's preliminary hearing at Eskridge tomorrow, and expressed their belief that the peddler was their long lost brother.

The Ringer brothers were located as the result of the finding of papers to two law books at Wimberly, Neb., sent out to William F. Ringer by attorneys last week among papers discovered in the house at Maple Hill, formerly occupied by Rufus King. A telegram was immediately sent to the county attorney of Antelope county, Nebraska, requesting that he locate relatives of Ringer. Today the answer came that William F. Ringer died in 1907, at age 12 years ago. Ringer was described in the message as a peddler of jewelry, made jewelry from shells and with gold plated wire, it was stated.

When the skeleton of the supposed jewelry peddler was found, two weeks ago in the yard of a livery barn formerly operated by King, a watch charm made from small sea shells and a gold wire was found in the grave.

According to information received from Wimberly, the state's attorney and counsel, the father of William F. Ringer, now dead, gave his son deeds to two lots in Wimberly. William F. Ringer left on a tour to sell jewelry and was never heard from again. When the father died money was spent in searching for the son but without success.

woman, than any well-considered judgment in the matter."

The majority also declined to concur in recommendations of the minority that enlisted men sit on courts-martial and that specialists be condemned. The Wilson report asserted that "although we believe some changes should be made, we are satisfied that the errors which we committed during the recent war and the excessive penalties which were no doubt often imposed, were due largely to the inexperience of those in control and to the fact that not only that we had of necessity to train an officer class over-night volunteers, but that our practice in the past of scattering our regular army, divided into battalions, companies and even smaller units over the country, had made it impossible to train properly even our West Point officers."

"We are thoroughly in accord," the majority report continued, "with the idea that there should be with each division, brigades, and perhaps regiments, a thoroughly trained unitary staff, with the rank of captain or of a lieutenant colonel, who should serve either as a presiding judge or as adviser at all courts-martial."

The majority members also favored having a lawyer on courts-martial, saying that "president judge advocate should be appointed by the president with the rank of major or higher, who should be lawyers of suitable qualifications."

The majority members report recommended that more care should be taken in obtaining counsel for accused soldiers, and urged that greater efforts be made to cut down the time taken in bringing prisoners to trial in order to lessen their period of confinement in the guardhouse. "We are satisfied that their associations in the guardhouse have ruined many a fine soldier," they said.

Judge Bynum and Mr. Gregory advocated that the president within four years from the time any judgment of a general court-martial and any final order of a medical, efficiency or other retiring board has

Here Is Committee That Will Conduct Probe of Our Relations With Mexico

The committee that will conduct the probe of the relations of the United States with Mexico and go exhaustively into the management of the affair by the Wilson administration is shown above. The committee has full power to go where it may choose and to call whomsoever it wishes to reveal the inside facts on the situation with Mexico in the hope of reaching some conclusion that will clear up the mess. The committee, which is headed by Senator Fall, will begin work soon. Senator Smith is a democrat, and the other two are republicans.

VETERANS WITNESS TOUCHING SCENES

Soldier Meets Captain After Fifty-Four Years; Many Speeches Mark Second Day of Reunion at Ada

Special in The World.

ADA, Aug. 27.—The second day of the reunion of the confederate veterans here today was taken up in speeches and renewing acquaintances. At the morning session, A. L. Craft addressed the veterans on legislation explaining the workings of the bill passed last winter.

Senator Luther Harrison carried the men back to the days of the war and reviewed what the war was like and what the men had done to make this possible. He pointed out that the greatest warrior in all our wars was gone from the south.

One of the most touching scenes the ex-soldiers ever witnessed happened this morning. H. F. Strickland was on the platform telling of his experiences in company B, 15th Texas cavalry. F. J. Barrett arose and asked the speaker if he could recognize his captain. Mr. Strickland thought for a moment and replied, "I am now addressing you. You had seen me 54 years since we met and they fell on one another's shoulders and wept.

A great celebration was held down town tonight. A parade marched down Main street. Bonfires, tableaux, music and an old fiddlers concert completed the program.

The attendance is larger than it was at the first meeting when the reunion was held here last. Several of the men have died but others have moved into the state and are in attendance.

The daughters of the Confederacy are here in good numbers. In her annual address Mrs. McClellan, president, spoke of the good work the organization had done and told of plans for the future.

Sheriff Gets Roulette Wheel.

An expensive roulette wheel and other gambling paraphernalia was seized in a raid on an alleged gambling joint in Mohawk yesterday afternoon. James W. Bensley and J. E. Bostick, deputies, before the raid, believed the premises to be a place where liquor was stored, but a thorough search of the house failed to reveal any alcoholic beverages. The wheel, poker chips, cards and other gambling devices were brought to the city and locked up in the county jail. No arrests were made as the officers failed to find any gambling in progress when the raid was made.

CHICAGO DEALERS EXPECT CONTINUED PRICE DROP

CHICAGO, Aug. 27.—A drop of $1 a hundred pounds on the average for hogs and lower prices for beef cattle to several reasons and partly the general protest against high living costs.

It is now believed that the tendency was still lower prices, particularly after the fall marketing and they professed to see a break in high living costs.

The public has curtailed its buying of pork and beef recently while live stock receipts are large. The eastern market failed to act as an emergency outlet and the packers virtually withheld their buyers from the pens today, leaving thousands of hogs without buyers, and speculators were hard hit.

Export business has been depressed by the foreign exchange situation, live stock men say, and the receipts of accumulations of hogs on the farms during the recent strike of railroad shopmen and a strong run of hogs in prospect.
